At the request of Friends of the Cibolo Wilderness, City passes resolution declaring 150 acres of open space to be designated to celebrate Boerne's 150th anniversary. (City Council)

Friends of the Cibolo Wilderness launch 3 million dollar "Grow the Cibolo" Capital Campaign to build a new facility, purchase the Herff Farm and start an endowment. Name changes from Cibolo Wilderness Trail to Cibolo Nature Center.

Songs and Stories begins, and is beloved by the community. Today the CNC hosts 6 outdoor family-friendly Moondance concerts a year.

Old No. 9 Greenway established through a CNC partnership with the City of Boerne. City Council approves the Open Space Master Plan, including trails, greenways, linear parks, Boerne Lake improvements, and floodway.

City of Boerne collaborated with the Friends of the Cibolo Wilderness on an application for a $100,000 grant from Texas Parks and Wildlife to convert abandoned railroad right-of-way into a Hike and Bike Trail.

CNC encourages City to protect Boerne Lake area by limiting vehicular access, adding a restroom, and management planning with help of Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

Boerne Birders Program begins with monthly birding events.

CNC Songs and Stories receives Brandon Gallagher-Manning Endowment, preserving the tradition of live music at the Nature Center.

Marshland & Prairie Trails at CNC now wheelchair accessible.

Cibolo Conservation Corridor project initiated to protect adjacent lands, water quality and biodiversity of the upper Cibolo Creek Watershed.

Texas River Watch project begins.

Groundbreaking for the Lende Learning Center.

CNC purchases land at "Sheep Dip Crossing" at River Road and Herff Road, and later provides an easement to City of Boerne to connect #9 Trail to City Park.

Members of the CNC and Cibolo Conservancy successfully spearhead Proposition One ($5 Million Bond Election) for County Parks and Natural Areas in Kendall County.

Kendall County Partnership for Parks founded.

Grand Opening of the 11,000 sq ft. Lende Learning Center.

First Art and Conservation project.

The Winter Prairie Bird Survey Initiated.

Great Blue Heron Rookery Monitoring program initiated.

James Kiehl Park first Kendall County Park established.

The Story of the Cibolo Nature Center and GreenMan: a Coloring Book is published.